

Michael Brandt, MS Ed., Ph.D.

Clinical Psychologist

Dr. Brandt completed his Master's degree in Education and continued on to attain his Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology in 1990. He was the managing-partner in a Milwaukee-based private practice for over 10 years before joining the Tomah VA Medical Center in 2004.

In the VA, Dr. Brandt practices clinical psychology, is the Coordinator for Preventive Medicine, the Employee Assistance Program, and is also the Psychology Internship Training Director. He is an Officer at the rank of Major in the WI Army National Guard – Medical Command Detachment (Camp Douglas, WI) and is Chief of Behavioral Health and Aeromedical Psychology for the State of Wisconsin. He deployed to Afghanistan in 2012 as the Behavioral Health Officer in Charge. Dr. Brandt has taught at both the graduate and undergraduate level, most recently in the Master's program in Counseling at Viterbo University. His expertise is in the areas of; PTSD, Veteran readjustment, biological psychology, human resiliency, and motivation.